Case 1-RM-1277

Dear Kaitz:

The above-captioned case, petitioning for an investigation and determination of representative under Section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act, has been investigated and considered.

On April 5, 2006, you filed an employer petition (RM), apparently seeking to determine the representative status of certain employees of the Employer that are currently represented by Local 1596, United Automobile, Aerospace, and Agricultural Implement Workers of America. However, the petition was not accompanied by evidence of a proof of demand for recognition from a labor organization, or of evidence of objective considerations that establish a good-faith uncertainty that the Union continues to be the majority representative of the employees in the unit. Moreover, despite being so requested by the Board agent handling the case, no evidence of proof of demand or objective considerations was submitted within 48 hours of the filing of the petition as required under the Board's Representation Casehandling Manual Sec. 11003.1(b). Accordingly, the petition is dismissed at this time.

Right to Obtain Review: Section 102.71(b) of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations permit you to obtain a review of this action by filing a request for review with the National Labor Relations Board. If you wish to file request for review, your attention is directed to the following, which summarizes the provisions of Section 102.71(c) of the Rules:

Request Due Date: The request for review must be received by the Executive Secretary of the Board in Washington, D.C. by the close of business at April 24, 2006. However, if you mail the request, it will be considered timely if it is postmarked no later than one day before the due date. The request MAY NOT be filed by facsimile transmission.

Extension of Time to File Request: If you provide a good reason, the National Labor Relations Board may grant you an extension of time to file the request for review. You may file a request for an extension of time by mail, or by facsimile transmission. The fax number is (202) 273-4270. Any request for an extension of time must be received by the due date indicated above. A copy of any request for extension of time should be sent to me.

Request Contents: The request for review (eight copies) must contain a complete statement setting forth the facts and the reasons why you believe the decision to dismiss the petition is incorrect.

Address for Request for Review: The request should be sent to the Executive Secretary of the National Labor Relations Board, 1099 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20570 by the due date specified above. You should send a copy of the request to me, and one copy of the request to each of the parties whose names and addresses are listed below.

Very truly yours,

Rosemary Pye
Regional Director
